POLITENESS SYMPOSIUM

Monday 3 December 2012
Kelburn Campus, Victoria University of Wellington

One day symposium focussing on (im)politeness

Alongside plenary presentations from leading international figures in the field of politeness research (Neal Norrick, Sachiko Ide and Juliane House) participants will have the opportunity to discuss their own data in each of two 90-minute workshops. For this purpose we invite abstracts of 50-100 words which indicate your area of interest and the data you wish to discuss. These abstracts will help us arrange appropriate discussion groups in the areas of (i) politeness and (ii) impoliteness.

Fees: $80 (includes morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea)
Reduced student rate $50

Please send your abstract to Meredith Marra at meredith.marra@vuw.ac.nz

Include your name and “Politeness Symposium” in the subject line. In reply, you will be sent a registration form. This will also confirm that your abstract has been received safely.

Register before 24 October 2012
